United Way of the Quad Cities Area local organization benefiting Scott and Rock Island counties. It is our mission to improve lives and make a positive impact in our community by mobilizing people and resources. We are fortunate to be among a network of over 1300 United Ways also working to impact their communities in the areas of health, education and income. This network allows us to learn from each other in order to advance the common good across the country.

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.
LIVE UNITED

HOW TO LIVE UNITED HERE IN THE QUAD CITIES: JOIN HANDS. OPEN YOUR HEART. LEND YOUR MUSCLE. FIND YOUR VOICE. GIVE 10% GIVE 100% GIVE 110%. GIVE AN HOUR. THINK OF WE BEFORE ME. REACH OUT A HAND TO ONE AND INFLUENCE THE CONDITION OF ALL.

- United Way of the Quad Cities Area is leading a Birth-to-Work community agenda to ensure that our area youth are Ready for School, Ready to Graduate, and Ready for Work.
- Quad City area residents that have chosen to LIVE UNITED have helped seniors maintain their ability to function safely in their home.
- More people in our community have the skills necessary to obtain employment thanks to United Way contributors.
- United Way has provided funding to help our neighbors improve their health and wellness.
- More area children are getting critical pre-reading skills thanks to Imagination Library, a partnership between our United Way and the Dollywood Foundation.
- More volunteers were trained last year to make meaningful contributions to our community through United Way funded programs.
- Residents of our area were able to move out of crisis situations and toward safety and stability because of dollars contributed through United Way.
- Family-life conditions have been improved because of people that donated to United Way last year.
- Our area youth are gaining more of the developmental assets necessary to be successful in life because of the generous supporters of United Way.
- Our community is learning how to LIVE UNITED and creating opportunities for a better life for all.
