Dear UAW Members,

The International Union, UAW proudly endorses the 2009 United Way campaign. By supporting United Way we are strengthening our communities and supporting those who are in need.

During these tough economic times we recognize it is an additional burden to ask you to contribute; however, there are so many in need and every little bit helps. This lingering economic downturn has stressed so many families, and many are less than one paycheck away from homelessness.

We are witnessing the rising cost of living, while wages basically remain stagnant, home foreclosures are unprecedented and the economy will take months, if not years, to recover. It is in times like these that many of our neighbors and friends are depending on us to help them over this hurdle. United Way has been the human service partner of unions through the AFL-CIO Community Services network for over 60 years. United Way works to see that contributions go directly to programs changing the lives of those they help.

Your consideration would be greatly appreciated by those most in need.

In solidarity,

Ron Gettelfinger
